

The Dominion of British West Florida is a non-secessionist Sovereign Nation, dedicated to the Restoration of the sovereignty of the People under God and the Crown.

Mych has been made of the 'rights of man', but far to often, the 'duties of man' have been forgotten, overlooked, or ignored. We the people of the Dominion of British West Florida, recognizing our Duties to God, the Crown, and each other, do hereby declaire these esential duties of all people:

It is the duty of the individual so to conduct himself in relation to others that each and every one may fully form and develop his personality. This duty may include actions necessary to correct individual, community, corporate or governmental errors.

It is the duty of every person to aid, support, educate and protect his minor children, and it is the duty of children to honour their parents always and to aid, support and protect them when they need it.

It is the duty of every able adult to acquire at least an elementary education.

It is the duty of every person to vote in the popular elections of the country of which he is a national, when he is legally capable of doing so.

It is the duty of every person to obey the law and other legitimate commands of the authorities of his country and those of the country in which he may be.

It is the duty of every able-bodied person to render whatever civil and military service his nation may require for its defense and preservation, and, in case of public disaster, to render such services as may be in his power.

It is likewise his duty to hold any public office to which he may be properly elected by popular vote in the state of which he is a national, or to which he may be appointed by compentent authority.

It is the duty of every person to cooperate with the state and the community with respect to social security and the general welfare, in accordance with his ability and with existing circumstances.

It is the duty of every person to pay the taxes, customs and fees established by law for the support of public services.

It is the duty of every person to work, as far as his capacity and possibilities permit, in order to obtain the means of livelihood or to benefit his community.

It is the duty of every person to aid the administration of Justice by serving as a Juror when called upon to do so.

It is the duty of every person, prior to taking any action, to consider the affects of that action on himself, his family, his community, his nation, and the natural environment.

The Dominion of British West Florida - We can run our own Country!